Art All Night Pittsburgh Celebrates ONLINE

Community Comes Together Online for Free 22-Hour Art Event

The first online installment of Art All Night Pittsburgh will be held from 4 p.m. Saturday, May 16th to 2 p.m. Sunday, May 17th. Like the traditional annual event this online art show will be provided free for 22-hours to Pittsburghers and beyond. Both Art All Night admission and artist participation are free and open to the public via the event website, www.artallnight.org.

Art All Night features original artwork, activities for children and adults, and entertainment. Throughout the night, guests can participate in collaborative art activities and enjoy performances by local bands and performers. Attendees can support artists through the bidding of art displayed in the show as well as through a donation to the Greater Pittsburgh Arts Council Emergency Fund for Artists. Bids and donations can be made during the show at artallnight.org.

Art All Night for Children

Children's activities will be held from 4 to 8 p.m. Saturday, May 16th, and again from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. on Sunday. Children and families are invited to participate in a collaborative art piece that can be downloaded on Saturday for display on Sunday. Non-collaborative activities including a scavenger hunt, BINGO, and performances geared toward children are available.

Call for Artists

All artists are encouraged to participate by submitting one piece of artwork to the show. These pieces may be sold or displayed not for sale. Online registration starts on May 1st at artallnight.org. To participate in the show, artists must login to artallnight.org between May 1st and May 11th (for video and audio submissions) and May 13th (for image submissions) and complete the registration form. All artwork must arrive during this registration window to be displayed. At the conclusion of the 22 hour event the site will become inactive and the show will be over. Artists will be contacted via the email address that they provided at registration should they receive any bids.
