Art All Night Pittsburgh Celebrates ONLINE

Community Comes Together Online for Free 22-Hour Art Event

The 24th installment of Art All Night Pittsburgh will be held from 4 pm Saturday, April 24th to 2 pm Sunday, April 25th. Like the traditional annual event this online art show will be provided free for 22-hours to Pittsburghers and beyond. Both Art All Night admission and artist participation are free and open to the public via the event website, www.artallnight.org.

Art All Night features original artwork, activities for children and adults, and entertainment. Throughout the night, guests can participate in collaborative art activities and enjoy performances by local bands and performers. Live painting featuring 24 artists will occur throughout the night. Attendees can support artists through the bidding of art displayed in the show. Bids and donations can be made during the show at artallnight.org.

Community

Experience the unexpected with a group of friendly Art All Night attendees! Our hangouts will feature a variety of group activities including curated tours of the art and music, poetry, storytelling, games, and other imaginative uses of Zoom rooms.

Art All Night for Children

A variety of artistic activities for children will be available during this year's show. These will be available starting at 4pm on April 24th through 2pm on April 25th. Children and families are invited to participate in kimono landscapes, collage making, an outdoor object landscape, and rock painting.

Video

Watch a show, a scene, or a clip of a production. Submissions will be included in a playlist running in a continuous loop in the online site cinema.

Music

Attendees can expect to see a mix of music acts, from recorded performances to a coffeehouse livestream.

Call for Artists

All artists are encouraged to participate by submitting one piece of artwork to the show. These pieces may be sold or displayed not for sale. Online registration starts on April 2nd at artallnight.org.
